Blizzards Halt Road Travel in Wyoming, Idaho

Weather Note: New York Has Warmer Feb. 14 Than Los Angeles Can Boast

(By The Associated Press)

Fresh ground blizzards put a virtual halt to road travel over storm-battered southern Wyoming and southern Idaho today as flood dangers mounted higher in the blizzard-stricken areas of Nebraska.

Winds diminished and temperatures moderated over the northern plains states, giving new hope to relief workers that digging operations will not be further hampered.

In Washington, fresh falls of snow blocked Snoqualmie and Blawie Passes in the Cascade Mountains and cross-state motor travel was halted. Snoqualmie Pass, the state's major east-west highway, had been open only two days when a new blizzard blocked it yesterday. Trains moved with difficulty across the Cascades.

A blizzard which swept over Boise, Ida., was the heaviest local storm in 17 years, the Weather Bureau said. Six inches of snow fell in seven hours last night. Snow was forecast for northwestern Utah. No heavy snow was reported in the Wyoming storm belt but ground blizzards—strong winds swirling the huge piles of snow over newly-cleared roads and rail lines—continued. Dust storms and dust drifts were reported at Scottsbluff, Neb., across the Wyoming line. Visibility at times was reduced to a few yards.

There were only a few scattered reports of sub-zero temperatures in the storm belt today—in the high points in Utah and Nevada. These included Roosevelt, Utah, -12 and Ely, Nev., -6. The only other below-zero area was in northern Maine.

Has Flood Worries Nebraska, which has been fighting snowstorms for more than six days.

Hungarian Says Vatican Was Told

Reval Says Government Was 'Forced' to Try Mindszenty

Budapest, Hungary, Feb. 15 (AP)—A top Hungarian Communist spokesman said last night the Hungarian government was "forced" to try Josef Cardinal Mindszenty after doing its best to settle church-state differences.

"The Hungarian government had officially informed the Vatican about all charges against Mindszenty in due time before the trial," declared chief Communist ideologist Josef Reval. "It did so to give the Vatican the possibility to remove him."

"We would have let Mindszenty go, only to help reconciliation between church and state," he said. He was addressing one of three rallies held in Budapest to protest against "imperialist, slandering and attempts at interference" in Hungarian affairs.

"The Vatican had the opportunity to act," Reval continued. "If the Vatican did not want to have Mindszenty, we thought we could go on and try him."

An official spokesman said later that Reval's statement meant that the offer to the Vatican was made before the arrest of the Cardinal and not before the time of his arrest and the trial. The Cardinal was arrested Dec. 26 and placed on trial Feb. 3. The People's court sentenced him to life imprisonment.

After the arrest, Reval was quoted as replying Hungary "never" would release the Cardinal as a condition of an agreement between church and state. He was quoted then in the official newspaper, Szabad Nep, as saying "Hungarian democracy is as sovereign as the Vatican and will not except the condition of exception from punishment for criminal acts and the immunity of priests who aim to overthrow the government."

'Took No Action'

The spokesman said the Vatican took no action before the arrest of the Cardinal and that the trial then was inevitable. When the Cardinal went on trial a letter he admitted writing was read. It contained an offer of the Cardinal to withdraw from his office, at least for a while, if the trial was postponed. The offer was refused.

The spokesman did not say how the negotiation was conducted. "The Holy See is not represented in the diplomatic colony here," he said. "But a way was found to acquaint the Vatican of the situation," the spokesman said.

Pact Meets Block Over War Angle

'Moral' Obligation Seen As Likely Only in Cases of Unprovoked Attack on Signatory

Parley Is Held

Connally, Vandenberg Meet With Acheson Two Hours

Washington, Feb. 15 (AP)—Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) said today the United States should be "morally committed" to act under the North Atlantic alliance only in cases of unprovoked aggression against a member.

Hickenlooper's observation came after Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) of the Foreign Relations Committee and Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) had made it plain the Senate won't approve any treaty language which would morally commit this country to go to war.

The Connally-Vandenberg statement was made in response to questions yesterday by Senator Donnell (R-Mo.). It generally was regarded on Capitol Hill as involving a setback for the State Department in its efforts to negotiate the proposed alliance with friendly European nations.

Later the two senators went to the department for a conference with Secretary of State Acheson, lasting nearly two hours. Neither would comment afterwards.

Hickenlooper, a Foreign Relations Committee member, told a reporter he agrees that this country ought not to make a blanket commitment to fight.

"We must reserve the right to decide for ourselves whether there has been actual, unprovoked aggression against a signatory country," he said.

There was evidence that Connally and Vandenberg had something of the same sort in mind. They told their colleagues they are opposed to any treaty which does not reserve to Congress its final decision on whether this country should go to war.

Vandenberg said there could be no "automatic commitment" for war, but he added:

"Obviously, something is meant by a general association that we find common interest in our mutual safety."

Connally said there are a lot of people "who would favor automatically going to war, which would mean letting European nations declare war and letting us fight."

Connally said he and Vandenberg have been making it plain to Secretary Acheson that the Senate won't approve "any sort of language in an international agreement which would commit us to go to war when some other country in Europe might be attacked."

The Connally-Vandenberg statements were looked upon as something of a restraining hand on any promises that State Department might make to Great Britain, France, the Netherlands, Belgium, Luxembourg and other nations which might enter the agreement.

The feeling on Capitol Hill has been that the department would like to go just as far as possible without openly abridging Congress' constitutional right to declare war—in promising the Europeans help against possible Soviet aggression.

But Donnell's action in raising the question of the "moral" or unwritten commitment which might lie behind the pact gave notice that Congressional critics are awake to the possibilities.

Redsto Oust Anna Strong For Spying

American Author to Be Second Journalist Put Out of Russia in Year for 'Espionage'

Visa Is Granted

Salisbury Is Approved for Entry as Times Correspondent

Moscow, Feb. 15 (AP)—The Moscow press announced today that Anna Louise Strong, well-known American author and correspondent, has been arrested on charges of spying and will be deported.

Miss Strong, who has been in Russia most of the time since 1921 writing books and articles which reflected a strongly pro-Soviet viewpoint, is one of the seven American correspondents in Moscow. She was listed as representing the Allied Labor News.

The Soviet newspapers disclosed her arrest in the following announcement:

"The well-known intelligence operator, the American woman journalist, A. L. Strong, who got into the U.S.S.R. as a consequence of the carelessness of certain foreign relations officials, yesterday was arrested by state security organs."

Miss Strong is accused of espionage and undermining activity against the Soviet Union. They report that in the next few days she will be sent outside the boundaries of the Soviet Union."

The deportation of the 63-year-old writer leaves the following American correspondents in Moscow: Eddy Gilmore and Thomas P. Whitney for the Associated Press; Henry Shapiro for the United Press; Joseph Newman, New York Herald Tribune; Edmund Stevens, Christian Science Monitor; and Andrew Steiger, Overseas News Agency.

A visa for a soviet correspondent, Harrison E. Salisbury, who will represent the New York Times, was authorized by Soviet authorities about three weeks ago. The Times has not been represented here since the spring of 1947 when Drew Middleton left on home leave and was not granted a re-entry permit.

Second Within Year

Miss Strong, who married a Russian in 1932 but continued to use her maiden name, is the second American to be deported for espionage in the last two years.

Jersey City Coke Plant Explosion Reported; Police Go to Scene

Kearny, N. J., Feb. 15 (AP)—A "terrific blast" at the Koppers Coke plant shortly before noon shook Journal Square in Jersey City and parts of Brooklyn, Hudson county police said.

Twenty-six county policemen were dispatched to the plant. Medical Center and West Hudson hospitals sent ambulances.

A Hudson county policeman said he understood it was in a new chemical plant at the Kopper Company.

In Jersey City, a mile from the Kopper plant, the explosion brought throngs rushing from buildings into Journal Square. Windows were cracked by the impact.

It was the second explosion in New Jersey today. A big oil storage tank at the American Oil Company, Carteret, was burned after gasoline in a tank truck being loaded nearby exploded at dawn.

The sprawling Kopper plant is along the Hackensack river. The company said it had "all employees evacuated."

Truman Is To End Talk Tax Halted

Speaker Sam Rayburn Tells Reporters Chief Will Spike Stories; No Determinations Made

Leaders Are Called

Top Democrats Confer With President About Subject

Washington, Feb. 15 (AP)—House Democratic leaders said today President Truman will make a statement Thursday explaining his recommendations for expanding social security.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn told reporters after a White House conference the President will discuss published reports that increased tax legislation is being put off indefinitely in order to give social security measures the right of way. Mr. Truman has asked for a $4,000,000,000 tax boost.

Rayburn indicated plainly that the President will spike reports that the tax program is being abandoned.

Rayburn's remarks came after a one-hour conference the President called with House Ways and Means Committee Democrats and others to go over the entire social security program.

"No determinations were made as to coverage or amounts for old age assistance and other benefits," Rayburn said.

Rayburn said the President discussed social security very frankly, got the reaction of the conferees, and stood on his previous message to Congress on the subject.

Besides Rayburn and the Ways and Means Democrats, those attending today's conference at the President's invitation were Rep. James P. McGrath, Democratic floor leader; Oscar Ewing, Federal security administrator; and Arthur J. Altmeyer, social security administrator.

Charles G. Ross, the President's press secretary, was asked at a news conference if Mr. Truman would have a message to Congress on social security. He replied that a message "is being thought about," and eventually he believed there would be another message on health insurance.

Federal financial aid through the social security program for all needy persons was proposed today in legislation introduced by Rep. Forand (D-R.I.).

Such public assistance, on a federal-state matching basis, now is available only for needy aged persons, the blind, and for dependent children.

Forand's measure proposes also to provide for the care of the aged.

Central Hudson Asks $2,000,000 Issue of Stock

At a hearing in Albany, Monday, before the New York State Public Service Commission, the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation requested permission to issue $2,000,000 of additional preferred stock. John Wilkie, vice president and treasurer, testified that the money will be used to finance the company's essential post-war construction program.

It is not expected that the commission will reach a decision on the company's petition for about six weeks or two months and the actual issue of the new stock will be deferred for some time.

George H. Landis, Central Hudson's chief engineer, enumerated the specific engineering projects on which the $2,000,000 is being used. Mr. Landis also described increasing customer demands on the Central Hudson System for electricity. These have necessitated expenditures for construction and equipment of about $15,000,000 during the four-year period 1946-1949 and will probably require $20,000,000 additional expenditure by the end of 1952.

John R. Gardner, manager of Central Hudson's Rate Division, testified in regard to the financial condition of Central Hudson's gas business. The company has had pending before the commission a petition for increased gas rates which would yield about $514,000 more annual revenue. On December 30, 1948, the commission granted $284,000 of this sum to the company.

Window Washer Is Held In Drowning of Aged Woman

New York, Feb. 15 (AP)—A window washer was charged with homicide and burglary today after reportedly admitting that he pushed 87-year-old Mrs. Margaret Timothy into her bathtub where she was found dead.

"I'm sorry it happened—as she was a nice old lady—I didn't mean to kill her," the prisoner, John Edward Felton, 43, a Negro, was quoted as saying.

Police said Felton made an oral statement that he pushed a bathroom door against the aged woman when he saw it opening as he was searching her apartment yesterday. The prisoner denied touching the woman with his hands.

Reds Claim Big Role in U. S. Discoveries

Moscow (AP)—A recent book by a Russian claims that in the exploration and settlement of America, Russia played "no small role." The book "From the History of Russian Expeditions in the Pacific Ocean" was written by A. V. Efimov and published by the Military Publishing House of the Soviet Union. It claims that "immense areas of northwestern America were discovered, investigated and described by Russian navigators and only by them, and then by right of discovery and settlement, Alaska was united to Russia." The book states that "the role of Russian people—state figures, scholars, travellers, sailors, soldiers—all those who by heavy labor conquered the elements, battling with death, discovered new routes, new lands, the role of those who in the most direct sense discovered America from the west—cannot be exaggerated."

Eagle Scout Award Highlight Western District Meeting

Norman North and Lester Davis, assistant scoutmasters of Troop 63, Shokan, received the Eagle Scout award, the highest award available to any Boy Scout, during last week's western district liberty rally at the Odd Fellows Hall in Olive Bridge.

North and Davis received their awards from their mothers, Mrs. Justus North of Shokan and Mrs. Alonzo Davis of Olive Bridge. The new Eagle Scouters then presented miniature pins to their mothers in appreciation of the help given them during their years of scouting.

The Rev. Harvey I. Todd of Woodstock, district commissioner, supervised the presentations.

Large Gathering

Sixty-one active scouts and Cub Scouts, 20 volunteer scouters and more than 100 parents and friends of the scouts attended the liberty rally which signified the 39th anniversary of the Boy Scouts and the beginning of the Crusade to Strengthen the Army of Liberty. Units represented at the meeting were: Cub Scout Pack 34 and Boy Scout Troop 34 of Woodstock, Troop 63, Shokan; Troop 65, Samsonville and Troop 163, West Shokan.

In the competitive events of the rally, Troop 63 took top honors with four first places and two seconds for a total of 26 points; Troop 163 was second with two firsts, three seconds and a third for 20 points; Troop 65 was third with one first place, two seconds and two thirds for 13 points and Troop 34 had two third places for two points.

Twelve candidates were investigated with their Tenderfoot Scout badges in an impressive candlelight ceremony conducted by a team composed of Scouts from Troops 63 and 163. The Scouts, first to be inducted into Ulster-Greene Council units in the 40th anniversary crusade were Ronald Locke, Gerald Effner, William Berkowitz, Werner Polack, John Boswell, Richard Hilton of Troop 34; Elbert Harrison and Albert Parsons of Troop 163; Ernest Beesmer, James Freese, Teddy Lukacs and Lester Lawrence of Troop 63.

James Melin of Troop 34 and Harold Carlson, Edwin Angell and Robert Beisel of Troop 63 received their second class scout badges. Calvin Palen of Troop 163 was advanced to first class rank and Louis Rose of Troop 63 was given his Life Scout badge. Merit badges for first aid were given to Scouts Frank Becker and Bruce Reynolds; Joseph Hilton for animal husbandry and to Peter Cooper for freemasonry. All of the Scouts are from Troop 34. Record charts for marking the progress of the units were presented to the unit leaders. These charts have been prepared by the National Council, Boy Scouts of America, for use during the crusade. Troop 163 was especially honored with a special seal on its chart, signifying approval of the goals set by the unit for the next two years. All units in Ulster-Greene Council are to set their goals by February 19, and Troop 163 was the first unit in the council to file its goals with the council office.

Scouting officials introduced to the assembly included George B. Matthews of Kingston, president of Ulster-Greene Council, and Clifford Carmichael of Lake Hill, chairman of the council's Western District.

Mine Workers For T. H. Repeal, Denounce Taft

The United Mine Workers of America has filed for the record with the Senate Committee on Labor and Public Welfare a written statement officially setting out their position in reference to the repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act, and its ideas as to the future legislation.

For the past 10 days and nights Senator Taft has, by a wordy and worthless flow of words been leading and fostering filibuster of the first water, all as evidenced by an ever-pyramiding transcript of evidence now approximating 3,000 pages, primarily cross-examination and political stump declamation, from less than a dozen witnesses. We will no longer stand idly by and allow this Lucifer of labor relations to make a Roman holiday of what should be the most serious of legislative deliberations.

This self-styled "ace in the hole" legislative artist seeks to practice his talents by dealing from the bottom of a cold deck. He seeks, and deliberately seeks, to dupe, deceive, distort and distract the public. The American people should not, and we believe will not, tolerate his campaign of camouflage and confusion. Even the most arch conservative member of the National Association of Manufacturers must confess that Senator Taft plays his game. He plays it in hoped-for political gain, to the detriment of American labor and to the detriment of all industry as well.

Let light be once and for all shed upon this devious and designing man who epitomizes the era of brute force, the use of the machine gun and mercenary strike breakers in an industrial jungle, an era now so thoroughly condemned and discredited by the American people. He would have this era return in the guise of so-called remedial legislation. His is the hairy hand of Esau but the voice of Jacob. He seeks to proclaim his virtues and love of the laborer from the house-tops. He deceives no one but himself. We condemn him for his hypocrisy and his consistent hymn of hate.

We call upon the Administration, the Congress, and the members of this committee, to bring about without delay, a flat repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act.

THE CENTRAL IDEA

When a New York Central brakeman says he "piss down his guns"—he doesn't mean firearms. He means track torpedoes.

Generations of brakemen have been clipping these little red torpedoes to the rails whenever their trains made unscheduled stops. The next train along sets off the torpedoes with a loud report—warning the engineer to proceed with extra caution.

stop the train if an engineer should fail to act on a caution or stop signal.

Yes, there are many more modern guardians of the rails than the little torpedo. But here's the point. Once a railroad safety device has shown its worth, New York Central may add new safety measures . . . but it's pretty sure to retain the proven and traditional one as well. ## Governor to Meet G.O.P. Legislators At His Residence

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 15 (AP)—Governor Dewey chartered new strategy today to insure solid Republican legislative support behind his record budget and tax program.

He asked all G.O.P. legislators to a special meeting Sunday at the Executive Mansion for the announced purpose of discussing the entire administration legislative program.

The discussions are expected to center on the $936,200,000 budget Dewey has proposed for 1949-50 and the $165,200,000 in increased taxes he has said will be required to help finance it.

The governor's invitation to the unusual, if not unprecedented, conference was accepted unanimously by Republican senators and assemblymen in separate meetings following last night's legislative session.

Veteran legislators said it was the first time during Dewey's six years in office that he had called a meeting of all Republican lawmakers in mid-session.

The move conceivably could have stemmed from administration concern over reports of dissatisfaction by some upstate Republicans to Dewey's proposed tax increases.

To date, however, there has been no outward evidence of organized dissent nor of more than isolated instances of grumbling.

On the other hand, solid G.O.P. support is needed to push through Dewey's fiscal program. Republicans this year have the smallest majorities in both Houses since Dewey took office in 1943. They hold a 31-25 edge in the Senate and an 87-62 margin in the Assembly.

Capitol observers attached significance to the timing of the executive mansion conference. It will come just a few days before the Senate Finance and Assembly Ways and Means Committees are scheduled to report on budget bills.

It also will follow by four days the public hearing on the budget, which will be held tomorrow in the Assembly chambers.

More than 125 persons, representing some 90 organizations, are scheduled to appear at the hearing.

Taxpayer and business organizations, are scheduled to appear at the hearing.

Taxpayer and business organizations are prepared to protest Dewey's proposals to increase personal income, gasoline, corporate franchise and harness racing taxes.

Requests for even greater spending than is contemplated in Dewey's budget will be made by representatives of teacher, educational, labor and child care center organizations.

David I. Ashe, president of the United Parents Associations, said in New York yesterday that 500 representatives of various parent-teacher and school organizations would attend the hearing.

He said they would demand increased aid for education for New York city and estimated the additional needs at $28,000,000 yearly for general running expenses and $290,000,000 for school building construction in the next eight years.

Peter the Great, of Russia, put a tax on boards, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

SHOKAN

Shokan, Feb. 15—A large number of persons from this section of Olive attended the Boy Scouts court of honor and liberty rally at the Odd Fellows Hall in Olive Bridge last Wednesday evening. Chairman of the meeting was Leonard Keefe of the Ulster-Greene Council who was assisted by the Rev. Harvey I. Todd of Woodstock. The Scout troops present were: 63, Shokan; 163, West Shokan; 65, Samsonville; 34, Woodstock, together with Woodstock Pack 34. Following the customary salute to the flag, contests were staged as follows: knot tying, compass, dressing, skin the snake and potato race. Next came the impressive investiture ceremony in which all lights were extinguished and the Scouts knelt as candles were lit one at a time while the Scout oath and laws were recited, until 15 candles were burning. Followed then the pinning of badges on the newly made tenderfeet—to be worn upside down until the Scout had done his first good deed—by Dominic Todd. The tenderfeet in the Shokan troop were Lester Lawrence, Jr., Ernest Deesmer, James Evesee and Teddy Lukacs. Second class Scouts: Robert Beisel, Harold Carlson and Teddy Angell; Life Scout, Louis Rose, and Eagle Scouts, Norman North and Lester S. Davis. Mrs. Justice North and Mrs. A. Davis received the Eagle badges to pin on their sons, while the latter in turn presented their mothers with tiny silver eagles. Lester Davis led the recital of the Scout oath and Chairman Keefe dismissed the rally.

Mr. and Mrs. Thor. Friedholm of Kingston were callers at their village center place Sunday. The couple, who have a farm near Samsonville and conduct a grocery business in Kingston, made a number of improvements to their local property last year, and last week delivery was made of materials for a new bathroom in the house.

Claude Ventz and Peter Angell recently were complimented in the Ontario district bulletin for the impromptu musical concert which they gave upon the occasion of Commissioner R. R. Bennett's January visit to the Shokan school. The two bright youngsters are comparatively new pupils of the school.

This young Negro not only made the Amherst varsity, apparently in his freshman year, 1888, and played on through until he went to Harvard in 1892, but won prizes in oratory at Amherst and was football captain and class orator in his senior year. The records are vague, but he is believed to have been captain of Harvard for one game against either Penn or Penn State. If so, he was a Negro captain in the Ivy League a half century before Levi Jackson, now captain of Yale.

He was a big man of reddish or copperish tinge with splayed ears the size of your palm that lay flat against his big head and he had a pipe-organ voice that could do the business in his practice of criminal law. And, although, as most lawyers admit, criminal practice tends to lower a man's reputation, Mr. Lewis died exalted in the esteem of most of the Massachusetts Bar. His funeral, from St. Cecilia's Church, in Back Bay, was attended by men whose names are a roster of the leadership of our most cultured community.

It is not disparagement of Joe Louis, Bill Robinson and a number of other respected Negroes of the present to call attention to the dramatic magnitude of Mr. Lewis's success and his conquest of handicaps, including prejudice. Fine as they have been, he was greater, and he died comparatively unknown. Paul Robeson has made his name detested by multitudes who hate the treachery of Communism and yet, out of exaggerated fairness, continue to swamp him with money. If he were not a Negro, he would be just another singer and one of a thousand resonant, grinning hams.

If Joe Louis came from a cabin in a cotton field, William H. Lewis came from circumstances much worse. He was born in the worst turmoil of the reconstruction days if not during the war itself. And if the Negro was a rarity in those days in northern cities he was also expected to be a buffoon and to keep his place, and the humor of the day ridiculed and classified him.

Mr. Lewis went to the city council of Cambridge in 1899, only twelve years after he landed in Boston, just a boy, busted, a

Report of New Wing To Benedictine Hospital

The costs involved in the construction of the new wing to the Benedictine Hospital were outlined in the report of the superintendent, Sister Benedict, at the annual meeting of the Benedictine.

Today the voluntary hospitals are experiencing the greatest operating deficit in their history. Financial statements and records of both large and small hospitals all over the country reveal this deplorable condition. Rising wages and rising prices for supplies and commodities are the cause for these deficits. Income, however, has not kept pace with the ever rising cost. The Benedictine Hospital is no exception to this national trend. Our hospital for the year 1948 shows an operating deficit of approximately $48,741.51. Our rates to patients for rooms and other hospital services have been increased, but despite these increases, income failed to keep pace with the still greater rise in cost. This national situation of voluntary hospitals should require the most serious attention of everyone. The fact and figures of every report should convince the public that there is only one solution to this national crisis, and that is not government control, but more help from the public. This benevolent spirit of responsibility has been manifested by the people of Ulster county many times in the past when called upon for support, and we trust it will continue until the Benedictine facilities are able to adequately meet the demands that are constantly made upon them.

For years, you have been aware of the inadequate bed capacity. It was this information given in the Joint Hospital Survey and Planning Commission of 1945 that prompted the committee to place the Benedictine Hospital in the priority list of Ulster county. From the local press you have learned that the government will give the Benedictine Hospital a grant of $416,333, which must be accepted not later than July 1949. This grant is one-third of the total estimated cost for the new wing which will be over $1,272,000. The remaining two-thirds must be assumed and paid for by the Benedictine Hospital. At this time, the management feel that they can carry a certain amount of the two-thirds of the cost, but for the total two-thirds amount, we will need some assistance from the public. Besides, the estimated cost of the wing, 1,272,000 given a few months ago, is now considered inadequate on account of the requirements for the kitchen and laundry. This will be an added burden, but these two departments are among the most important for the efficient functioning of a 200-bed hospital. We who are responsible for the management of our hospital, consider it imperative not to curtail these two essential service facilities as they will be absolutely necessary, not only now, but in the future of a community hospital like the Benedictine.

From our 1945 campaign, and various legacies and gifts, received from our many good friends during the past years, we now have a building fund of $615,803 on hand. This added to the government grant of $416,333 gives us a total of $1,032,136 and leaves a balance of $239,864. It is this sum of money plus the cost of adequate space and equipment for the kitchen and laundry that we will be responsible for and which we trust the public will assist us in obtaining by a campaign or some other method.

An interesting and significant point in the review of our census for the past few years, is the steady decline in the average stay of the patient in the hospital. This reduction in the time limit results in reducing the cost of hospitalization to the patient and it particularly offsets the increase in present high rates.

Last week, the press carried the information that the Benedictine Hospital was among the group of Hospitals approved by the College of Surgeons. In the press also, the College praised the hospitals for their notable progress in organization, control and efficiency.

No one was more pleased with the outstanding grant from the government than our president, Monsignor Drury, whose interest and wholehearted support since he came to Kingston has been directed to the enlargement of our hospital. We are grateful to Monsignor for his solicitude and inspiring leadership of our hospital.

Our thanks are expressed to Father Carey for his faithfulness in administering to the spiritual care of the patients.

Several of our doctors are continuing to take post-graduate work in the Medical Center of New York City. This augurs well for the efficiency and scientific progress in our hospital. The past year has seen marked improvement in our medical staff meetings. This is most encouraging since the new point system established by the College of Surgeons gives their highest rating to staff meetings, clinical conferences and medical charts. In regards to the latter, we are happy to inform the doctors that Sister Paul Marie is now a registered record librarian.

On account of ill health, Dr. Gannon, one of the oldest members of the staff has been transferred from the active to the consulting staff. Dr. Eugene F. Galvin has been appointed to the medical executive board and also named secretary of the medical staff.

It is with sorrow that we record the passing of Dr. Frank L. Eastman, one of the oldest and most faithful members of the Benedictine Hospital.

Doctor Galeota, a graduate of the New York Medical College is now serving as resident in our hospital. Doctor has come to us well recommended and is giving excellent care to our patients.

At a special meeting of the executive board in June, several doctors were admitted to our medical staff and at the recent annual meeting of the board, one more was accepted.

We acknowledge with sincere appreciation, the interest and loyalty of our doctors in caring for our indigent patients. Also, for their contribution toward the education and physical care of the students in our School of Nursing.

We are looking forward with interest to the final completion of the Tumor Clinic. This building will be a great contribution to the drive for preventive medicine in Ulster county. Those who have been instrumental in the establishment and progress of this clinic should feel proud of their achievements.

Within our doors there is constant activity, but others too have our interest at heart, and with sincere thanks we acknowledge the many fine accomplishments of the Ladies Auxiliary under the direction of Mrs. George Elnterz, president; the outstanding success of the January tea by the Junior Auxiliary; the Junior League for their continuous service in the distribution of books to our patients; the needlework craft of the Kingston High School for the many well-made articles of linens; the merchants for their splendid support and our many friends who have contributed flowers, papers, surgical instruments and other various gifts for the comfort of our patients; the mayor and his department for their excellent service; to the chief of the fire department and his associates for their demonstrations in the use of fire equipment and for their frequent inspection of our buildings; also to the chief of police and his staff; and last but by no means least, the local press for their fine presentation of our problems to the public.

In the early fall, through the great generosity of the Knaust Brothers of Saugerties, who presented a beautiful Chevrolet car, we were able to raise a substantial sum of money for our building fund. The venture was not only a most successful one, but has again assured us of the great confidence and good will of our many friends.

We gratefully acknowledge the following contributions:

Kingston Daily Freeman ..... $10,550.00
..... 25.00
At last after many years of great inconvenience, our inadequate water pressure and supply has been remedied. It has been an expensive undertaking, and increased our deficit considerably this year, but is now giving great satisfaction.

The following additions and improvements have been made:

1 Instrument Sterilizer
1 Sandborn Metabolator
3 Stainless Steel Ice Cabinets
12 Hospital Beds
1 Gas Range
1 Large Vestibule Rubber Mat
1 Floor Polishing Machine
1 Bendix Washer for Nurses
Home
2 Pressure Storage Tanks
7 Expansion Tanks
1 400-Gallon Copper Water Tank
1 New Boiler
2 French Marine Electric Pumps
1 Recording Machine
Repairs on Laundry Boiler
Complete Shelving of Supply Room

Reserved for special mention and highly deserving of it, are the people, professional and non-professional, who actually performed the work of keeping an institution like ours in operation. Their interest and efforts have been joined together to make the Benedictine Hospital a center of service for the whole community irrespective of race, color or creed.

Do You Remember

by
SOPHIE MILLER

A postal card arrived from a gentleman (born in 1874) showing the Central Bus Terminal, at Broadway and Pine Grove avenue long before the front of the building was torn down for the busses. Do you remember how it looked, red brick with vines over it right to Broadway?

Since the item came out about the ice-harvest money cards used in this section many of the old time merchants have found several stored away in safe places. Well, its too late to redeem them and spend the cash. Harry L. Edson of the Recreation Department said Fischer's was a great place to eat. One day he ordered beef steak and received a good sized steak and the usual substantial side dishes. Carl G. himself came over and said, "Oh... you haven't got enough to eat there," and immediately ordered an extra portion of ham and eggs to round off Mr. Edson's already eight course dinner. Now, who can deny that these were the "good old days?"

An old timer from Wurts street said that the Knickerbocker Ice Company during the winter used horses for their ice-harvesting and during the summer used these horses in New York City and elsewhere to cart around the ice to the consumers. Thus the horses worked summer and winter.

Did you ever hear of the "Kingston Daily News" which was published back in the 1870's? C. M. Thomas and John H. Van Keuren were its publishers at 46 Wall street. Herbert E. Thomas of 23 Crown street has a copy dated October 10, 1878. For one thing it tells of the honesty of Walter S. Fredenburgh, who found $100 on an uptown sidewalk and returned it to its rightful owner, Mrs. Fowler, mother of J. Deyo Chipp.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" was playing at the local Music Hall, to a capacity house, the admission being 25 and 35 cents. It also tells of the death of a famous horse named "Gumbo" which had lived to the unheard of age of 45 years and six months. Who remembers "Gumbo"?

Anniversary Party With Valentine Theme At Y.M.C.A. Tonight

The Youth Center Committee at the Y.M.C.A. has completed plans and decoration for its gala celebration tonight. The occasion which will be in the form of a Valentine dance will mark the 5th anniversary of the center and also will be the 500th party given there.

Music will be provided from 8 to 11:30 p. m. by Bud Deyo's Columbians. A king and queen will be chosen. The dance will be informal.

Decorations in keeping with the Valentine theme have been arranged by the following committee: Robert Straley, Jean and Jacqueline Bilyou, Rosemary Hutton, John Deyo, Joan Krueger, Janet Lyons, Betty Moss, Jane Downsbrough, Patricia Pesoro, William Wiedemann, John Goerke, Thomas Miller, Richard Campbell, Ann Louise Palis and Gail DeWitt.

Gloria Tabacchi Becomes Fiancee Of Carl Brancato

GLORIA TABACCHI

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Tabacchi of Rosendale have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Gloria Tabacchi, to J. Carl Brancato, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Brancato of Rosendale.

A dinner was held in their honor at Sportsmen's Park Saturday.

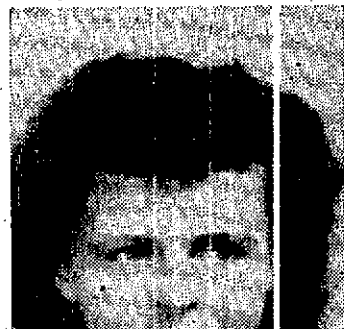

Both Miss Tabacchi and Mr. Brancato are graduates of Kingston High School and are employed at Montgomery Ward's in Kingston. (Ken Roosa Photo)

Academy Announces Dramatic Production Of Famous Story

Winsome, imaginative, befeckled Anne Shirley will step out of the pages of storyland when the dramatic committee of the Academy of St. Ursula presents "Anne of Green Gables" adapted from L. M. Montgomery's novel of the same name. The performance will be at St. Mary's auditorium, February 27, and at St. Joseph's auditorium, March 1.

Described by Mark Twain as: "The dearest and most moving and delightful child since the immortal Alice," the character of Anne first came into being in 1908 as the heroine of Miss Montgomery's novel, "Anne of Green Gables" won such instant popularity that the author was besieged by a clamor for more tales of Anne and Matthew and Marilla, "Anne of Avonlea" and two volumes of "Chronicles of Avonlea" appeared within the following five years to answer the pleas.

In the 40 years since her first appearance, Anne has lost none of her charm as the whimsical little orphan girl whose unexpected arrival ruffled the peaceful lives of Marilla and Matthew Cuthbert, struggling up and down the depths of love and tenderness.

Tickets for either performance may now be purchased from students of the Academy of St. Ursula and will likewise be available at both auditoriums on the nights of the respective presentations.

Sorosis Has Valentine Party Luncheon Monday

Sorosis held a Valentine party luncheon at the Stuyvesant Hotel Monday noon. Tables were decorated with red candles, Valentines; paper cups filled with candy at each place and a huge Valentine "pie". Each one attending was allowed to pick a favor from the pie. The favors were Mary Margaret McBride calendars, Mrs. Herbert Darrow was chairman for the party.

A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Conrad J. Heiselman. She reported the "get-together" of the third district federated women's clubs at the Albany Women's Club Wednesday at 2 p. m.

Afterward Mrs. Howard A. Lewis showed photographs and slides of her recent trip to Europe. Included were views of England, Scotland, and Italy.

The next regular meeting will be Monday, February 21, at the home of Mrs. Eugene Pemberton, 203 First street. Mrs. George Kernochan will have the paper on Famous Women in Politics.

Peter Pafunda Baptized

A son, Peter William Pafunda, was born February 10, to Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Pafunda of Voorheesville at the Brady Maternity Hospital, Albany. Mrs. Pafunda is the former Miss Arlene Fredenburgh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fredenburgh of 161 Tremper avenue.

Mr. Fredenburgh visited his daughter Sunday and also was present for the infant's baptism. Sponsors were Mrs. Virginia Knoll and by proxy, William Fredenburgh, brother of Mrs. Pafunda and who is stationed in San Diego with the naval air force. The baptismal rites were administered by the Rev. Father Cahill, professor of the College of St. Rose of which Mrs. Pafunda is an alumna.

Gerber Selected For Opera Workshop

Jerry Gerber, young operatic tenor of this city, has been chosen by the American Theatre Wing of New York city to continue his operatic studies under the guidance of the Anthony Amato Opera Workshop of New York city. Mr. Gerber is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Gerber of 123 Wilson avenue.

Mr. Gerber's vocal coach is Leon Rathier, French bass of the Metropolitan Opera Association, who performed many times with the renowned Enrico Caruso.

SALAD SERVED WHEN PREFERRED

A reader asks: "Why is it such a cardinal sin to eat salad at the same time as the meat and potatoes? Evidently you've said that to be correct, salad must be served as a separate course, either as an hors d'oeuvre first or follow the meat course. My wife would rather be caught dead than be incorrect. So we not only can't have salad when we prefer it, but since we have no one to wait on table, my wife has to get up from the table to serve the salad, whereas the other way, the individual plates could be put on the table ahead of time along with the other food."

There is no reason on earth why you—in your own house—may not eat your salad when and as you please. The rule of salad served as a separate course applies only to a formal service table, especially at a dinner party.

Wedding Present for Bridegroom
Dear Mrs. Post: My fiance's employer has just sent a very masculine smoking set, addressed to me, for a wedding present. Which of us should thank him?

Answer: Since the present was addressed to you, you should! In the note you might say how much John is going to enjoy it.

Very Young Widow

Dear Mrs. Post: I guess I'm unusually young at 19 to have a baby a year old and also be a widow. However, that's the way it is. Would my age make any difference in public opinion if I went out with young men friends within a few months?

Answer: A widow of less than a year who accepts the attentions of other men probably would be criticized, no matter what her age. To go out on occasion with very old friends would be another matter.

Double Initials

Dear Mrs. Post: What initials are used for monograms on linen and silver when the bride-to-be has a double first name (Mary Lou) in addition to her middle name (Simpkins) and her last name (Jones). She now is marrying a boy named Brown.

Answer: My advice would be for her to drop both middle and family initials and have her things marked M.L.B. for Mary Lou Brown.

Every hostess is proud of beautiful table linen. Mrs. E. S. Leaflet, E-32, "Table Linen" describes the use of monograms and the appropriate cloth for dinner, luncheon or breakfast. Atharhacton Studies Glass
Atharhacton Club met with Mrs. Vincent Connelly, 142 Pearl street, Wednesday afternoon. Her topic for the program was Old Glass and she used for references American Glass by McKearin; Early American Pressed Glass, Ruth Webb Lee, and Our Catskill Mountains, Herring, and several issues of the Antique Magazine.

She spoke of the early glass brought in by the first settlers and of the first glass making industries about 1820 which marked the introduction of molds. About 3,000 patterns in glassware are being sought by collectors.

One of the first glassmaking industries was established in this section near the foothills of Overlook Mountain. A marker about a mile north of the Shady post office marks one of the early glass industry's location and Glasco was named for the industry.

Mrs. Connelly spoke of flint glass which was not made after the Civil War because lime glass began to replace it. She also described several types of glass and exhibited several pieces.

The next meeting, February 23, will be at the home of Miss Louise van Hovenberg, 195 Wall street.

Sale Will Be Legal

Lansing, Mich., Feb. 15 (AP)—After a ban of 48 years the sale of colored oleomargarine is going to be legal again in Michigan. The validation will be the first initiated act from the people in Michigan's 112 years of statehood. By a 21-7 vote the State Senate last night approved repeal of the old law, acting on an initiatory petition whose sponsors claimed 190,000 signers. The validation becomes effective 90 days after the current Legislature adjourns.

Mrs. Culver announced the following committee chairmen for the year: Mrs. Harry Walker, maintenance; Mrs. John Healey, young adults; Mrs. Frederic Holcomb, finance; Mrs. Daniel Van Wageningen, personnel; Mrs. Henry P. Eighmy, publicity; Mrs. Harold Davis, editor of The Forecaster; Mrs. Frank Thompson, fellowship; Miss Alberta Davis, membership; Mrs. Vincent Connelly, hospitality. Committee chairmen to be named include teen-age, activities and camp.

Swift Run on Legs, Nylons, That Is, Occurs in Florida

Jacksonville, Fla., Feb. 15 (AP)—A fantastic run was reported here yesterday, and it wasn't at a race-track or on a bank. It was up and down milady's legs.

Hundreds of women pedestrians in downtown Jacksonville said their nylon hose simply when to pieces while they were wearing them.

It was just like that. You'd be walking along when all at once—ripping-rip—there it was, that band of feminine chic and charm, a run in your stocking.

Health department officials took a few looks and notes, and went into action. Dr. W. W. Rogers, the city health officer, said certain gases that mixed with air and smoke might have reacted with the nylon fibres and caused the sudden disintegration. He wasn't exactly sure, though.

"I am not prepared at this time to say exactly what caused the situation," he said as he listened to feminine complaints yesterday. "It may be several days before we have anything to announce."

He called on chemists at the University of Florida to aid in solving the riddle.

Reading, Pa., got in on the act by saying it was all old stuff. Nylon hose had disintegrated there about a year ago, a chemist at a knitting mill said. He blamed the calamity on fumes discharged from a chemical plant.

Fumes from such strong acids as sulphur and hydrochloric acid cause quick disintegration of nylon, the Reading chemist said. At Wilmington, Del., a spokesman for E. I. duPont de Nemours, one of the country's largest nylon producers declared, however, that he'd never heard of anything like the quandary at Jacksonville.

Thorp Sees . . .

tee, simultaneously with the Senate-House group, is studying E.C.A.'s new $5,580,000,000 aid program.

Thorp told the Joint Committee that President Truman's "bold new program" for development of such areas as Latin America, Asia and Africa, will provide large markets for machinery, supplies and equipment.

"There undoubtedly will be severe competition between American and European firms for these markets," he conceded.

Thorp saw reason for "some optimism" on the prospects of the rest of the world obtaining dollars to do a large part of the buying here. Barring a recession, he said, American purchases abroad should continue to be high in view of industry's growing need for foreign minerals and other raw materials.

"The impact of a decline in our purchases of imports on the process of world recovery would be most serious," Thorp went on. "Any inflation in this country would likewise have repercussions abroad by increasing the cost of our products to foreign purchasers."

While the hearing went on, E.C.A. took a new look at its aid program in the light of some drops in food prices.

E.C.A. Chief Paul Hoffman is expected to come up tomorrow with a revision of the entire program based on lower food costs.

Senator George (D-Ga.), chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, said he believes E.C.A. can cut more than $270,000,000 out of the aid program without hurting Europe's recovery.

"Declining food prices mean they can go just as far with less money," George told a reporter. "I don't care how they do it—but at least 10 per cent should be cut out of the total."

Senator Fulbright (D-Ark.), a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, took a similar view of E.C.A.

"If food prices don't jump up again," he said, "it's logical they should cut the request."

The E.C.A. estimated its costs on the basis of food prices last November 30. But since then there has been a break in commodity prices.

Reds to Oust . . .

and American correspondent in a year to be charged with spy activities.

Robert Magidoff was ordered to leave Russia in April 1948 when Evestia published a letter from his secretary, Cecelia Nelson of Michigan, accusing him of spying.

The letter said Magidoff, correspondent for N.E.C. Exchange Telegraph and McGraw-Hill Publishing Company, had received instructions from McGraw-Hill to collect certain information on underground construction. McGraw-Hill explained that the charges were based on "routine news assignments" sent to Magidoff.

Magidoff said he believed his expulsion was for internal propaganda purposes.

Miss Strong is known as the author of a score of books and articles which gave her the reputation of being strongly leftist and pro-Russian. She also has traveled widely in China and central Europe.

A compilation, "Ladies of the Press" by Ishbel Ross published in 1936 by Harpers states that the late Lincoln Steffens persuaded her to go to Russia. At the time she was writing on I.W.W. and other labor activities for the Seattle Trade Union newspaper.

She went to Russia in 1921 for the American Friends Relief Mission and became correspondent for Hearst's International Magazine for central and Eastern Europe, and for the North American newspaper alliance in Russia in 1925.

The next year she lectured at Wellesley, Smith, Vassar, Columbia, and Stanford, and in 1930 organized the Moscow Daily News, first English language newspaper in the Soviet capital. Two years later she married a Russian, Joel Shubin.

Among her many books are "I Change Worlds: The Remaking of an American" (1935). The nation described the book as "the strange adventure of an individual soul trying to become collectivized."

The London Times said it was an "unconvincing apologia."

Other books were "Children of the Revolution" (1925), "China's Millions" (1928), "The Soviets Conquer Wheat" (1931), "The Soviet Constitution" (1937), "Spain in Arms" (1937), "My Native Land" (1940), and "The Soviets Expected It" (1941).

President Will . . .

that the federal government make larger contributions in states—many of them in the south—with small per-capita incomes.

The committee has put tax legislation in a cooler while it tackles social security, beginning February 28.

Democratic leaders say that is all right with the president. A tax-boosting bill might do better if later it appears that Congress will appropriate more money than present tax laws will bring in.

One source said the expanded social security program, if approved by Congress, might call for almost $8,000,000,000 in payroll taxes next year. The amount now collected annually for old age and survivors insurance and for unemployment compensation is about $3,250,000,000.

Any security tax-boost would be separate from the proposed $4,000,000,000 increase in general taxes.

Although he has not yet given details of his social security proposal, Mr. Truman has indicated to Congress that this is about what he wants:

1. The addition of 20,000,000 farm workers, domestic workers and self-employed to the 30,000,000 persons now eligible for old age pensions. Benefits would be increased by at least 50 per cent.

2. Increase in unemployment insurance.

3. A new disability insurance, to provide federal benefits for a worker when he is sick, or if he becomes permanently disabled.

4. Health insurance, under which the government would pay the doctor bills of a worker and his family. This, too, is new. It already is under attack by the American Medical Association which has proposed instead a voluntary health insurance program.

To finance such a vast program, the administration may propose a six per cent Social Security tax. Three per cent probably would be collected from salaries up to $4,800—which would make the maximum pay envelope tax $144 against a present top of $10— with a similar percentage paid from the boss' payroll.

If the whole program is approved by Congress, the tax would become substantially higher when the health insurance got into full swing.

Social Security taxes now are 1 per cent on income up to $3,000, with the boss matching each worker's tax. In addition the employer pays an unemployment compensation tax that averages out at about 1½ per cent of payroll.

opposes both the Taft-Hartley and administration measures, said there's a good chance neither of them will stand as the nation's labor law if he and Senator Ives (R-N. Y.) can get together on a substitute which might give Republicans a "balance of power" in the Senate.

Morse said that a Morse-Ives Bill, if introduced, would probably "determine the kind of labor legislation the Senate finally approves."

Morse and Ives both oppose features of the Taft-Hartley Act. For example, they both want to discard the 80-day injunction in "national emergency" strikes.

On the other hand they both want a more comprehensive law than the Thomas Bill, which was passed by the Truman administration and introduced by Senator Elbert Thomas (D-Utah), chairman of the Senate Committee.

The Thomas Bill would do away with most of the Taft-Hartley Act and replace it with a law more similar to the original Wagner Act of 1935.

Morse made it clear that he and Ives have not yet agreed on an entire bill. He said if they do, it may be introduced sometime next week, they don't, each man will offer his own proposals.

Harry P. Ruppert of Rochester, president of the New York State Association of Real Estate Boards, and Joseph F. Addonizio of Albany, executive vice-president, will be speakers at the annual dinner of the Ulster County Real Estate Board at the Governor Clinton Hotel on Thursday evening, February 17, at 6:30 o'clock.

At this meeting the newly elected officers will be presented by the retiring president, Schuyler C. Schultz. George W. Moore of Kingston is president; George A. Neher of Woodstock, vice-president; Lawrence J. MacAvoy, secretary, and Arthur J. Burns, treasurer.

Cow Falls Through Roof Into Kitchen
Bristol, Eng., Feb. 15 (AP)—Raining cats and dogs is nothing. At John Tour's house it rained a cow—right through his kitchen ceiling.

The cottage is built into a hillside and one of the eaves touches the ground on the slope side.

The cow chomped her way through Tour's terraced cabbage patch. She stepped on the roof. Crash.

Tout brushed off the broken dishes, smashed roof tiles, pulverized mortar and splintered furniture. He recognized his visitor as Daisy, the property of neighbor Jack Cave.

Tout took his back door off the hinges, shooed Daisy out of his home, put on his hat and went to see his lawyer.

Yesterday a court awarded him 25 pounds ($100) damages against Daisy's owner.

Record Highs Are Boy, 9, Saves Upstate's Fare Children on Bus

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 15 (AP)—Record high temperatures were recorded in New York state today.

The mercury soared to 61 at Syracuse, five degrees above the record for the date, set in 1908. Five years ago, it hit a record low of 17 below zero.

Buffalo recorded 59 early this morning, nine degrees above the record high of 1891. Rochester's 54 surpassed the record of 1882 by one degree.

In Binghamton the temperature soared to 61, smashing the 41-year-old record of 56 for the date. Rain and strong winds accompanied the high temperatures in many areas. Syracuse reported minor wind damage. In the northern section of the state, the rain froze in the early morning hours.

The Albany Weather Bureau said temperatures would drop generally to the 30's by tomorrow.

Salisbury, Conn., Feb. 15 (AP)—Quick thinking by nine-year-old Dick Kenney was credited with averting disaster when the driver fainted at the wheel of a school bus with 30 children aboard.

The accident happened yesterday as the youngsters were starting for the Grove street school.

The driver, George Dodge, 33, suddenly collapsed in a faint. His body, in falling, brushed against the wheel, and the vehicle headed toward a ditch and public utility pole.

Dick, a fourth grader, remembering what his father had taught him about driving, grabbed the wheel. He headed the bus straight down the road for about 400 yards, and then deliberately swerved it into a snowbank.

The boy said he knew the engine would stall when it hit the snow, and, sure enough, it did. No one was injured.

High School at Port Jervis; Middletown Plays Fallsburg

Maroon Favored Over Tri-Staters

The piessbox "lead" is always the same when Kingston High ventures forth in DUSO League basketball competition these days.

For instance, it would be silly to say anything except that Port Jervis High is all steamed up and ready for the kill when undefeated K.H.S. (in DUSO play that is) invades the tri-state boards tonight.

Grinding toward their 15th league pennant under Coach G. Warren Kias, the Maroons are favored to win after a hard struggle.

Inconsistent Club

But, and there is always that but, Port Jervis is a hot and cold ball club that can be dangerous on a hot night, especially on its home boards. They gave the Kiasmen a thorough workout at the municipal auditorium and tonight should prove about as sociable as an undernourished panther.

From the Kingston standpoint, the picture is optimistic. Joe Albany is attaining better condition with each passing day. He may be able to travel a quarter or more, if the situation demands it tonight.

Port Jervis appeared to have everything at the start of the season—a flock of veterans, added height and scoring power in Jay Bauer, Jayvee sensation of 1947-48. But, after an impressive start, they folded and their play has been marked by an inconsistency that likely will prove fatal against the highly geared Maroons.

Middie's Pace Test

Coach Kias is anxious to wrap this ball game and then points for the next two important brawls with Newburgh and Middletown.

On other DUSO fronts tonight, Middletown faces serious opposition in Fallsburg, while Monticello and Liberty go at each other in a mountain rivalry that has no bearing on the DUSO race.

Incidentally, Kingston High will be seeking its 51st victory in the last 52 games.

Stamford Signs Joe Glenn

Stamford, Conn., Feb. 15 (AP)—Joe Glenn, former big league catcher, has been named field manager of the Stamford Pioneers of the Colonial Baseball League.

John Gentile, general manager of the club, announced the signing of Glenn who wound up 20 years of professional baseball as a catcher for the Boston Red Sox in 1940.

A native of Dickson, Penn., Glenn caught for the New York Yankees in 1935-1938. He went to the St. Louis Browns in 1939 and from there to the Red Sox. During the war he caught for Mickey Cochrane's Great Lakes team and for the sub-base team at New London.

Glenn's managerial experience includes a year with the Lockport, N. Y., team of the Pony League, a similar period with Martinsville of the Carolina League, and last year with Moline of the Illinois State League.

He succeeds Zeke Bonura, former big league first baseman who managed the Pioneers since the organization of the Colonial League.

• Bagatelles:

Call it co-incidence, or what you will, but the boxing game has experienced a tremendous resurgence of interest and competition since Harry Markson, a former Kingstonian, took over the helm at Madison Square Garden.

Mixing a bit of imagination with a sprinkling of high grade European performers, Markson has accomplished a minor miracle in the badly sagging fight industry. Climax of Harry's efforts came last Friday when 19,000 fans stormed into the Garden for the Willie Pep-Sandy Saddler encore.

As top tub thumper for the Twentieth Century Sporting Company, Markson always retained the respect of the fourth estate. Today, in a job where second guessing is almost second nature, Markson has achieved even higher stature. He's here to stay.

Joe DiMaggio rates only two American League pitchers, Hal Newhouser and Bob Feller, as truly great, and expects Joe Coleman of the A's to crash the class this year or next.

"How about Gene Bearden?" the Yankee Clipper was asked. "Maybe I'm not including Bearden because I usually manage to do very well against left-handers," replied DiMaggio. "But he hasn't beat the Yankees yet."

The record reveals that during Cleveland's stretch run, the World Series ace thrice failed to finish and lost thrice as a relief hurler against the erstwhile Bombers.

• Flotsam and Jetsam:

Poughkeepsie Bowling Association has a record breaking entry of 240 teams for its annual tournament, or roughly 80 per cent of the registration. Slicker's Colonials blew their last hopes for a playoff berth in the O-S Shagbush by losing to a weak West Point Squad, 47-52. Len Slicker is talking about matching a college all-star squad against Dutch Dehnert's Saratoga Indians some time in March. Edward H. Walz, faculty bowling adviser, is doing a swell job with the K.H.S. League at the Central Recs. About 65 boys are competing in the program. Y.M.O.A. swimming pool getting a new method play. ### • Chiefs Hold on to Ostrom:

Lou Baselle, the salvage tycoon who operates the Poughkeepsie Chiefs, refuses to deal for Billy Ostrom. Ted Laviano made a flatter offer for the eccentric southpaw, either cash or player swap, but Baselle was reluctant to consider a switch. In Poughkeepsie, he's just a better ball player in Kingston. In Poughkeepsie, he's just another character with his days numbered. The Chiefs have Chuck Quimby, best player on the team, up for sale, but probably want half of the pile under Fort Knox.

• Signs of the Times:

Louis Urges Savold-Charles Bout; Zale Seeks Third Bout With Cerdan

New York, Feb. 15 (AP)—Five world champions figured today in a rash of ring activity that had cauliflower ears buzzing.

These were the fast-breaking developments:

1. Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis said he'd give Lee Savold just a week to agree to meet Edward Charles in a bout to determine a suitable challenger.

2. Lightweight Champion Ike Williams and Cuba's Kid Gavilan prepared to sign for a March 18 bout—the winner to get a shot at Walter King Ray Robinson.

3. Charley Johnston, manager of Sandy Saddler, said he would go to the New York Athletic Commission with a complaint against Referee Eddie Joseph's handling of last Friday night's fight in which Saddler lost the featherweight title to Willie Pep.

4. Tony Zale, boxing's rugged steel hand who refuses to wear out, predicted he'd win back his middleweight championship from France's Marcel Cerdan this summer. "I feel I can take this fellow the next time," he said.

Warns Savold
Louis, who says he will come out of his unofficial retirement for one more fight, issued his ultimatum to Savold before boarding a plane yesterday for Chicago.

He indicated the Paterson, N. J., cloutier, who has just returned from England, wouldn't be considered as a possible opponent unless he took on Charles first.

First Hotshot Squad Fails in A.B.C.; Saugerties Recs Hold Fourth With 2797

Atlantic City, N. J., Feb. 15 (AP)

Three changes occurred in the standings of the first ten in the five-man event of the 46th Annual American Bowling Congress tournament here last night, but the leading Leon's Tavern team, of Akron, Ohio, was not displaced.

The Olympic Realty five of Los Angeles, led by Bill Flesch, and the first "name" team to roll in the tournament failed in its bid for the top berth when they posted a 2818 total. The Leon's Tavern team took first place Sunday with a 2856 total.

In another minor change among the team leaders the Barberger and Robbins team of Wilmington, Del., rolled into a tie for eighth position with a 2745 count.

A new leader was established in the doubles event when Edwin Appelle and Zeke Trody, of Detroit, jumped out in front with a 225 score.

Hermann's Grounds

Two of the nation's outstanding teams scheduled to roll last night had to postpone their appearances. The Hermann's Undertakers of St. Louis, who were flying to the tournament were grounded at Washington. They will compete tonight. The George's Dept. Store team of Pontiac, Mich., postponed their appearance indefinitely because of an auto accident in which three members of their team were injured while driving to the tournament.

The leaders of the five man event:
Leon's Tavern, Akron, O., 2856;
Olympia Realty Co., Los Angeles, 2818;
Brincko Bowling Lanes, New Castle, Pa., 2799;
Saugerties Recreation, Saugerties, N. Y., 2797; and Carfax Grill, Middletown, Ohio, 2789.

Singles event leaders are: Emanuel Weimar, Philadelphia, 688;
George Foster, Chicago, 366;
Joseph Van Winkle, Charleston, Va., 649.

In the two-man event the team of Edwin Appelle-Zeke Trody, Detroit with 1225, is leading.
Ray Wymer-Frank Magara, Salt Lake City, 1105, hold seventh place while Leroy Rosenbrance-Floyd Carmen, Johnson City, N. Y., are tenth with 1,198.

Cut for Rickert

Seattle, Feb. 15 (AP)—Marv Rickert, who replaced the injured Jeff Heath of Boston in last fall's World Series, disclosed today he had been offered a cut in salary for the 1949 season. "Cut?" he snorted. "It's an amputation."

Rickert said he had returned his third unsigned contract to the Boston Braves. The best figure offered to date, he said, was $1,500 less than he received last year with the Milwaukee Brewers of the American Association.

(IN BRIEF)
(By The Associated Press)

Horse Racing

Miami, Fla.—Calumet Farm's Coalstown broke the track record and equalled the world's record in winning the mile and an eighth fifth race at Hialeah by six lengths. Coalstown was timed at 1:47 3/5—three-fifths of a second faster than the track record. The Calumet flyer returned 20 cents on a dollar.

Baseball

Players signed: Ralph Caballero, infielder, by Philadelphia (N.L.). Sid Hudson, Joe Haynes and Ed Klieman, pitchers, by Washington (A.L.). Leroy (Satchel) Paige, pitcher, and Ken Keltner, third baseman, by Cleveland (A.L.). Mike McCormick, outfielder, by Brooklyn (N.L.).

New York—The Yankees purchased veteran Second Baseman Mickey Wittek from their Kansas City American Association club.

Squash

Philadelphia—Hunter Lott, Jr., of the Merion (Pa.) Cricket Club, won the U. S. squash racket singles championship by defeating Don Strachan, New York Princeton Club, 15-12, 15-14, 12-15 and 17-14.

Hatten Signs

Brooklyn, Feb. 15 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers announced today that southpaw Joe Hatten had agreed to terms following a conference with President Branch Rickey in California. Hatten won 13 games and lost 10 for Brooklyn last year and compiled a 3.53 earned run average, 10th best in the league. Yesterday Rickey signed outfielder Myron (Mike) McCormick who was obtained from Boston in a trade for Pete Reiser. The Dodgers have 23 players in the fold with 17 to go.

All bowlers interested in serving on committees in conjunction with the annual city championships of the Kingston Bowling Association are invited to attend the monthly meeting, Wednesday, Feb. 16 at the Y.M.C.A. at 7:30 p. m. President Gil Simpson says committees chairmen will be appointed that night.

$255,200 Melon For Pro Golfers

Chicago, Feb. 15 (AP)—Golf's tourney pros will be shooting for a $255,200 purse in 15 meets on the summer schedule. With the exception of the $10,000 U. S. and Canadian Opens, the minimum prize per tournament will be $15,000.

Topping the money list are the $30,000 National P.G.A. at Richmond, Va., May 25-31, and the $35,200 George S. May World Championship at Tam O'Shanter, in Chicago August 11-14. May's All American Tourney with a $20,000 jackpot is August 6-9.

The National Open will be June 9-11 at Chicago's Medinah Country Club. The Canadian Open is June 22-25 at Toronto. The summer tour opens with the $15,000 Goodall Round Robin Invitational at New Rochelle, N. Y., May 12-15. It closes earlier than usual with the $15,000 Grand Rapids, Mich., Open, Aug. 18-21, the program's only new tourney.

George Schneider, P.G.A. Tourney manager, said the comparatively early closing date this season was made because the nation's top pros will be leaving for England and the Ryder Cup matches.

Bowling

Respectable Bud Evans pummeled out a 602, with high solo of 244, Sunday night in the Central Mixed League, 11th other scores were 178 and 180.

Also of note were George Uhl's 224-594; Joe Enright 204-533; Mizie Arlensky 195-517; Ella Lowe 210-540; Dick Williams 511; John Frederick 502; Evelyn Francis 208-518; Jim Daniels 517; Ken Fadel 527; Jim Pruden 541; John Sangi 221-561.

George "Beant" Fleming was far and above the rest of the field in the Ferraro Mixer with a Sunday night blast of 211-172-179-580. A mighty respectable blast on those days.

"Pep" Spadofora shot 485; Ed Wyant 203-182; John Ferraro 522; Doris Wolf 499; J. Beichert 514; W. Murray 201-538; Pete Nagy 501; Chris Backman 200-497.

The 700-twins, Harry Wilber and Don Vogel, carried off high triple honors in the Independent League last night at the Centrals.

Wilber was top man with a 614 string on 188-222-204. Vogel started fast with 235 and added 172 and 198 for 605. Ross Ellis was third with 214-550.

Ed Davis posted 203-201-574; Ed Trembley 218-574; C. Davis 229-200-568; R. Hultberg 560; W. Davis 557; F. Schick 208-557; R. Cornish 551; R. Kubick 212-548; Eddie Marks 544; C. Davis, Jr. 200-540.

George Fleming, exponent of the hook-bowling, had high triple honors all to himself in the City League with a 624 at the Bowldrome.

The Jake's Grill anchor knocked off steady scores of 225, 186 and 213. C. Thino was runnerup with 215-573. W. Kuehn shot 220-561; John MacLellan 558; C. Davis 551; Roy Webster 548; Ad Jones 240-545; Ralph Mayors 203-541; John Ferraro 201-510.

Bob Steeger, son of a bowling father, showed the old man a few tricks with a big league 589 triple last night on the Y drives in the Freeman League's weekly session.

The future, meanwhile, was struggling furiously for all of 425. Steeger, junior, rapped the maples for 183, 196 and 189 for the lone five-hundred in the circuit. John Dittus, Jr., posted 494, Charles Dick 413, Cliff Schryver 483, and Nick Kuber 473 for the other top counts.

Ben Sklon, the typewriter tycoon, had his touch system in high order in the Good Neighbor League, pummeled the maples for a league-leading string of 223, 183 and 192. He would have had a lot more but for splits and misses and bad ball.

Runnerup was Mike Levy with 224-200-574; G. Goldfarb hit 205-552; Sam Markowitz 202-202-543; Larry Jacobs 202-530; Irv Levine 532.

Shaughnessy Starts Monday

Beichert's Studebakers avenged a previous defeat and clinched third place in the City Recreation Basketball League last night by edging a hard fighting Chez Emile squad, 44-38, at the municipal auditorium.

The contest was played to determine positions for the Shaughnessy playoffs which get under way next Monday.

Beichert's, leading by a slim margin of 17-16 at the half, had to battle furiously until the final buzzer.

The score changed hands three times in the third and fourth quarters before two fields and a pair of singletons by Herb Wagner, with two minutes to go, iced the game for Beichert's.

Chez drew up to 38-34 before Wagner started on his spree. Trailing by eight points at the minute and a half mark, Chez made a desperate bid to gain possession by expert "freezing" by Charlie Beck and Frank Sasse saved the day for Beichert's.

Link Crosby of Chez Emile was the individual scoring leader with 13 points. Teammates, Glaser and Jordan, had 12 and 10 respectively. Wagner was high for Beichert's with nine.

Elected

EDWARD PULLING

Announcement has just been made of the election of Edward Pulling as president of the Board of Directors of Greer School, Hope Farm, Dutchess county. Pulling succeeds Arthur W. Butler, who has retired as president after 16 years of outstanding service.

Pulling is well known to residents of Millbrook. He founded the Millbrook School for Boys in 1931 and has been its headmaster since then. Formerly he was head of the History Departments at Avon Old Farms, Avon, Conn., and at Groton School, Groton, Mass.

Pulling has been a member of the Board of Directors of Greer School since 1939 and its vice-president since 1942. "Greer School," he says, "is tremendous by worthwhile. The task before us as directors, staff members and friends of the school, is to preserve what has already been achieved and to build upon this foundation."

Greer School was established in 1906 as Hope Farm by the Rev. David H. Greer, at the request of the Children's Court Judges. The school enrolls 200 normal boys and girls from 12 to 18 years of age of all Protestant faiths who, because of their parents' death, illness or separation, may be in need of a home and schooling. For years, both public and private agencies of Ulster county and Kingston

Two Stolen Cars Recovered: Third Is Reported Gone

Local police recovered two stolen cars Monday, but received word early this morning of the theft of another.

A maroon sedan reported stolen at 1 p. m. yesterday from the rear of Kingston Hospital was recovered a few minutes later near central post office.

Officers Elbert Soper and Gurnsey Burger Sr. took Frank Remy, 565 North Oak street, Buffalo, owner of the car, with them on a tour in search of the auto and they lost little time in locating it.

Remy said it had been taken between 11:30 a. m. and 12:50 p. m.

Officer Raymond Wells reported at 8:35 p. m. Monday that he had located the car reported stolen Feb. 2 by Fred Pieper. It was on Mill street near Broadway and its battery was dead, and children in the area described a person they had seen riding in the auto, he said. The owner arranged to have it towed to a garage.

Louis Siler, 48 Spring street, reported at 1:30 a. m. today that his sedan was taken from in front of his home between 6:30 p. m. Monday and the time he reported it missing. It is registered in the name of the Siler Beef Co. he said.

Richard J. Peters, 132 Market street, Saugerties, also reported yesterday afternoon that a license plate had been stolen from his auto while it was parked on Thomas street Saturday night.

Fire Destroys Pocono Buildings

Mt. Pocono, Pa., Feb. 15 (AP)—Fire leveled a row of buildings in the business district of this Pocono mountain resort town early today as firemen from four surrounding communities battled to keep it from spreading to other sections.

The blaze leveled a three-story building, two two-story buildings and a one-story dwelling. There was no immediate estimate of the damage. State police said there were no reports of casualties.

Police said the fire apparently started in the three-story building which housed a sporting goods store, a gift shop and a barber shop. It spread quickly to the other structures containing two apartments, a tap room, a shoe repair shop and a state liquor store.

Firemen battled the blaze through the early morning hours to keep it from spreading to the Frank Marz Coach Co. bus terminal and the state police barracks along Belmont avenue.

Fire companies from Tannersville, Pocono Lake, Poughkeepsie and East Stroudsburg fought the blaze. The Marz Coach Co. had a water handicapped the firefighters.

Jersey Hotel Lists Aids For Their Bed Smokers

New York (AP)—A New Jersey hotel posts the following instructions for guests who plan to smoke in bed:

"1. Call the office and notify the management when you wish your room to be smoked. It is a matter of record that a very high percentage of hotel fires are caused by this careless practice.

"2. Notify guests in adjoining rooms of your intention of endangering their lives, so that they may take necessary precautions to protect themselves.

"3. Go to the corridor and locate the nearest fire escape, so that if you are fortunate enough to escape your room, you may reach safely.

"4. Now sit down and think how foolish it is for you to take this risk—your life and the lives of others—while thinking it over.

"Business may be good, but we do not have guests to burn, so please—HELP US TO PROTECT YOU."

Brahma Bull Dies Of Broken Heart

Las Vegas, Nev., Feb. 15 (AP)—A Brahma bull, fiercest of range cattle, died in the desert near here—of a broken heart.

Section hands on the Union Pacific railroad tell the story: "Two weeks ago, a Brahma cow wandered onto the tracks and was killed by a speeding train. Crews came to bury the beast but could not. The tough bull stood guard over his dead mate and snorted off all intruders.

The bull had since kept up the lonely vigil day and night. Passing trainmen threw off hay to him but it was unavailing. The bull, brokenhearted and starved, died."

Today he is buried side by side with his cow.

157th street and Third Avenue, the Bronx, after police had been unable to find him at his home.

In the statement attributed to Felton he said he changed the dimes for bills in the Bronx.

The prisoner admitted pushing the woman police said, after being shown his fingerprints obtained from the bathroom door and being confronted by several persons who said they saw him in the building yesterday.

Deputy Chief Inspector Walter Sullivan said Felton admitted he had entered the apartment, and in a small bedroom had seen a mahogany box from which he took four rolls of dimes, with a total value of $20.

"I got a thrill out of taking it," Sullivan quoted him as saying. Felton allegedly entered the apartment yesterday when he found a kitchen service door unlocked.

Police said the theft of $20 from the dining collection of young Kuba, the grandson of a week ago, apparently had gone undiscovered.

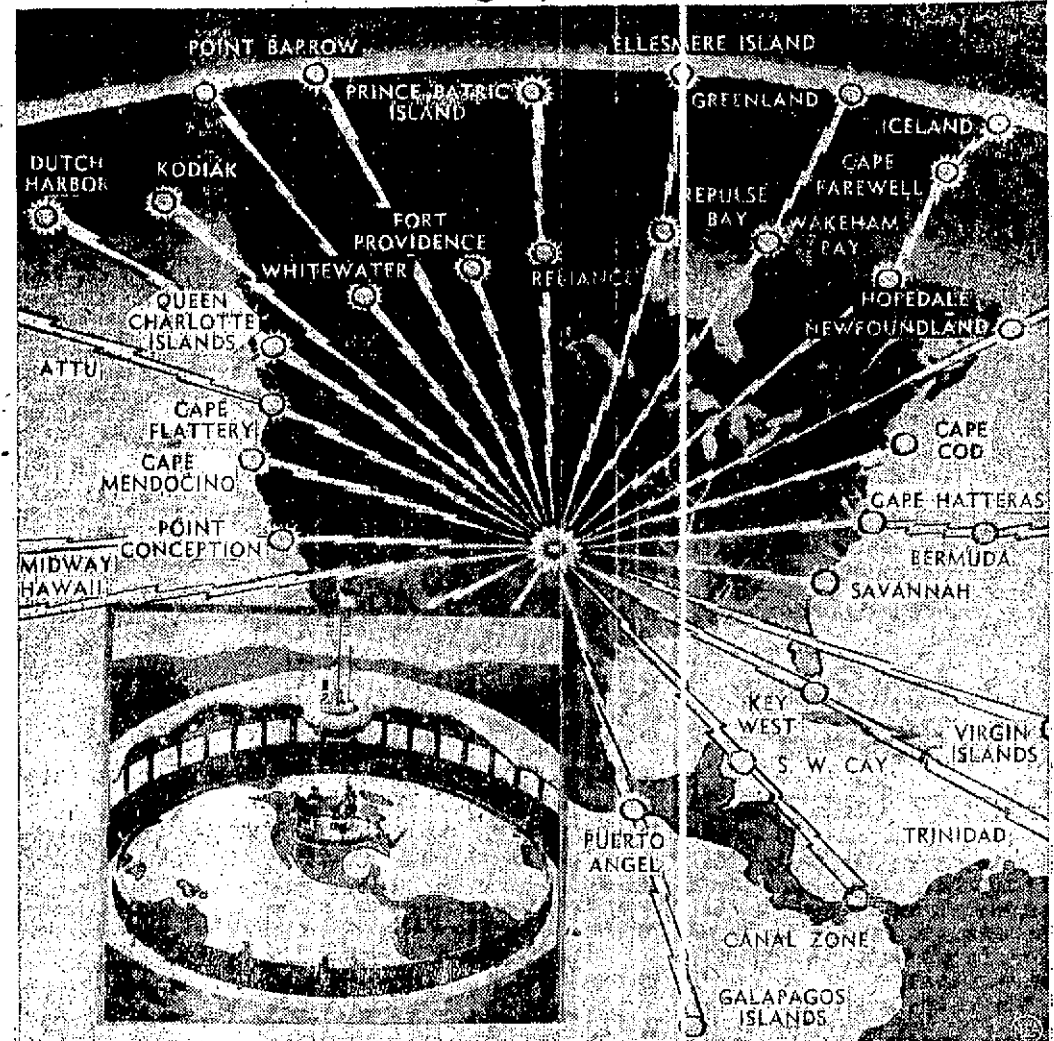

Mrs. Timothy is the widow of Patrick Joseph Timothy, who died 13 years ago. Her three sons, Finlan, 53, of 133-11 229th street, Laurelton, Queens; Richard, 51, of Little Neck, N. Y.; and Hubert, 49, of Bogota, N. J., came here to answer police questions.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Kehoe, son-in-law and daughter of the dead woman, and their son John L., Jr., made their home with Mrs. Timothy.

Plan Vast Radar Warning System for U. S. and Canada

Congress is considering an Air Force proposal for a joint U. S.-Canada radar network to warn against the approach of hostile aircraft. The U. S. share of the cost would be $101,000,000. While warning that the system will not provide anything like an "all-time" radar fence, the Air Force said it would provide warning of planes up to 300 miles away—sufficient to enable the Air Force to prepare a defense. The map above illustrates one plan for such a radar network as urged recently by F. H. Lack, chairman of the radio industry's mobilization committee, in the magazine Mechanics Illustrated. The radar stations would be in touch with the central control post (inset) by television.

Bills Proposed in Legislature

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 15 (AP)—Governor Dewey has asked the Legislature to provide for state regulation of non-profit cemeteries.

Leaders Benjamin F. Feinberg and Luc B. Maillet, in the Assembly that he would sponsor an amendment to House rules today to set March 1 as a deadline for introduction of bills. The present limit is February 15.

The Senate's final legislative approval was given a bill to continue for another year, to March 31, 1950, the 12-member State Flood Control Commission. The group directs the federal long-range flood control program within the state.

Another bill sent to the governor from the Senate would place district school superintendents appointed after July on a three-year probationary term before permanent appointment. Directors of a supervisory district now elect a superintendent for an indefinite term.

The Assembly, meanwhile, passed and sent to the Senate a bill to extend the state's emergency housing law until March 31, 1950. The measure, sponsored by Assemblywoman Maude E. Ten Eyck, Manhattan Republican, would continue the law under which temporary low-rent veterans' housing could be built.

In his report on the cemeteries, Goldstein told Dewey the "so-called non-profit cemeteries" were actually "lucrative commercial ventures."

Such cemeteries are permitted to be organized under state law only on a non-profit basis.

Goldstein said that "many millions of dollars were being siphoned annually from the cemeteries by calculating individuals in control."

O'Dwyer Makes Bid

Mayor William O'Dwyer asked the Legislature today to strip the Public Service Commission of control over fares charged by bidders and streetcar lines operating under New York city franchises.

Companion measures were introduced by Senate and Assembly Majority Leader John P. O'Dwyer and Irwin Steingut. They have the backing of the city's board of estimate.

O'Dwyer announced Saturday that he would sponsor the amendment to the public service law to clear up what he described as divided authority exercised by the commission and the city.

If enacted, the measures would allow the city after May 1 to establish fares without P.S.C. approval through contracts with private bus and streetcar operators.

ann appropriations of $27,361,587.11, of which $4,311,500.39 had been spent through December 31, and $2,749,218.82 has been contracted for during the same period. Another $20,100,867.94 is listed as ready for contract.

In their resolution, Quinn and Steingut said the Republicans had informed the people last November 2 that the state had a surplus of $750,000,000 to meet postwar needs.

"Suddenly and virtually overnight, we were informed that the surplus has been entirely appropriated," they declared. They added:

"A typical example of what we mean by waste and extravagance is a $17,000 appropriation for reuniting the assistant director's residence at the Binghamton State Hospital."

Republican finance leaders immediately charged that the Democrats had attempted "to cast a cloud upon the financial position of the state" in referring to the $17,000.

Arthur H. Wicks, Senate Finance Committee chairman, and D. Mallory Stephens, chairman of the Assembly Ways and Means Committee, said in a joint statement that the amount actually spent on the assistant director's residence was $773, not $17,000.

They said $13,136 of the amount had been spent to correct faulty wiring in Ferris Hall, one of the hospital's wards. They added that the fund did not contain $750,000,000, but would only total $583,900,000 as of next March 31.

Council Requests Pre-Trial Talks To Help Calendars

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 15 (AP)—The State Judicial Council asked the Legislature today to set up a system of pre-trial conferences in courts throughout the state to relieve crowded calendars.

The proposal was one of 23 recommendations made by the council in its annual report to the Senate and Assembly.

The conferences, now used in the Supreme Court in New York county permit parties in legal actions to attempt to settle differences at informal hearings preliminary to the actual court trial.

"Pre-trial frequently is the only necessary means of reconciling differences between parties who are inclined to settle," the council said.

Other proposals would: Consolidate the Court of General Sessions at the county courts within New York city with the Supreme Court which "would be tantamount to adding three or four justices of the Supreme Court in the Bronx and New York counties and two or three justices of the Supreme Court in Kings and Richmond counties to be available for the disposition of civil cases."

Permit examination before-trial procedure, under which each party may examine the other "on all relevant matters."

The council said this proposal would "almost certainly result in eliminating many cases by settlement or discontinuance, and would reduce cases not settled to their basic trial issues with a minimum recourse to the courts and with little expense to the state."

The council said that in and around New York city, one factor responsible for delays in settling cases was the "number of cases brought in the Supreme Court which apparently should more appropriately be brought in courts of inferior jurisdiction."

Other proposals advanced by the council include those to simplify procedure by which writ process and contempt proceedings are abolished in review, of assessments upon real property, and another to keep an arbitration association from denying the right to be represented by an attorney.

The council was established in 1934 to "make a continuous survey and study of the organization, jurisdiction, procedure, practice, rules and methods of administration and operation of each and all courts of the state."

Chief Judge John T. Loughran of the Court of Appeals is chairman.

Government Taxes Gained

Washington, Feb. 15 (AP)—The government collected almost $3,000,000,000 more in taxes last year than it did in 1947, despite the 1948 cut in personal income levies. The Treasury Department reported today that the total for taxes of all types in calendar 1948 was $42,302,864,105 compared to $39,420,845,440 the year before.

As usual, the heaviest share of the federal tax burden: $7,936,909,726. In 1947 the total was $7,668,131,145. Trailing New York were Illinois, Pennsylvania, California and Ohio.

Permit Is Refused

Boston, Feb. 15 (AP)—The Communist party of Boston last night was refused a permit for a scheduled Sunday meeting as one city councillor recommended "breaking the law" if necessary to keep them out.

Mayor James M. Curley agreed with a request from the council urging him to refuse the permit. "It's about time we in Boston began to appreciate what is happening in Hungary and Greece," Curley said. "I am against communism and I will refuse to grant known Communists the privileges of democracy."

New York Cites 'Needs'

New York, Feb. 15 (AP)—New York city will need 153 new elementary school buildings within the next five years to cope with the unprecedented birth rates of the 1940's, a board of education committee reported yesterday.

The committee said an estimated $272,622,000 would be needed for the new schools to meet the "educational crisis." And this outlay, the report said, is only the beginning of what the school system must do to handle the expanded population.

Military Tactics and Bridge Take Plans

War Orphans Scholarships, Inc.

is an organization that was started by the bridge players of the nation during the war, to provide scholarships for the children of those who were killed in action.

At their annual meeting in Washington recently, I am happy to say that I was re-elected president.

During my stay in Washington I had luncheon with Maj. Gen. A. M. Gruenther, director of the joint chiefs of staff, who is an interested and active member of the board of War Orphans Scholarships, Inc.

I asked General Gruenther what type of bridge players general he is going to have to ruff three clubs.

The thing to do is to cash the ace of hearts, then lead the nine of diamonds. West wins this with the ace and leads back the six of clubs, which South ruffs with the three of hearts. Next he leads the three of diamonds and lets it ride. East winning the trick with the jack.

He leads back the queen of clubs, South ruffs with the king of hearts and leads the five of diamonds. East wins this with the king, and his best play is to lead back the queen of spades, which South wins with the ace. A small heart is led to dummy's jack, the queen of hearts picks up East's ten and declarer discards his losing nine of spades at the same time.

Calls Action Stupid

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Feb. 15 (AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt says the treason trial and imprisonment of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty in Hungary was "one of the most stupid things the U.S.S.R. has done."

She made the statement last night in a speech criticizing communism before 1,200 persons at a meeting sponsored by the Dutchess County Council of World Affairs. She did not elaborate on Russian connection with the trial by the Communist Hungarian government. She said the trial "should have been approached in a different way," but declared she is not concerned primarily with the Roman Catholic cardinal's title or denunciation.

Diplomas Have Arrived

The State Regents diplomas for those students who were graduated from Kingston High School in January, June or August, 1948, have arrived at the local high school. Graduates may obtain these diplomas by calling at the principal's office.

Sun rises at 7:02 a. m.; sun sets at 5:27 p. m., E.S.T.
Weather, showers.

The Temperature recorded on the Thermometer during the night was 38 degrees. The highest figure recorded up to noon today was 46 degrees.

Weather Forecast

New York city and vicinity — This afternoon, partly cloudy and mild; high in low 60s; moderate easterly winds. Tonight, partly cloudy with scattered showers; low in mid 40s; increasing winds becoming fresh.

(to strong) south to southwesterly; tomorrow, partly cloudy; not so warm; high in middle 50s; moderate westerly winds.
Eastern New York — Rain today, warmer in interior, windy with showers tonight, followed by cooler with rain changing to snow flurries in north portion. Wednesday, partly cloudy, somewhat colder in interior and colder near the coast.

Baltimore Expects 80 Degrees Today

Baltimore, Feb. 15, (AP)—A grasshopper hopped into a downtown building. Horse flies buzzed into weather bureau offices. Forsythias, rose bushes, and other plants put on green shoots in north Baltimore.

And why not? The mercury had reached 70 shortly after 10 a. m. today. The weatherman predicted something close to 80 by mid-afternoon. (Highest recorded temperature for a Feb. 15 in Baltimore was 69, in 1939.)

This was a break for three black bears at Baltimore's Municipal Zoo. Director A. R. Watson reported they had shed their coats ahead of schedule, and without new ones now are "quite naked." They, and the rest of the zoo population, moved to outdoor cages, except three tropical monkeys, for whom no February in Baltimore can be tropical enough.

Musicians Hold Banquet at Barn

Musicians Enjoy Annual Party

More than 200 members and guests of Local 215, American Federation of Musicians, attended a banquet and social evening at The Barn Monday night.

During the evening, Dick McCarthy acted as master of ceremonies and several guests including Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk praised the work of the local in bringing music to Kingston. Howard "Red" Ives, one of the local's directors, and an ensemble of members, played for dancing.

Other entertainment was provided through the courtesy of Bob Teetsel, proprietor of The Barn. Although efforts were made to have James C. Petrillo, famous president of the American Federation of Musicians, as guest speaker, Mr. Petrillo was unable to attend and a telegram of regret was reported by Michael Marchuk, secretary of Local 215, and chairman of the banquet committee.

The local union committee, organized in 1925 with 25 men and has grown to an organization of 240 or more members. John A. Cole, president, remarked in speaking briefly. He especially greeted the new members and related some of the background of Local 215. He said that a musician's union can vitally affect the life of a community.

Mayor Newkirk thanked the musicians for their wholehearted support of several programs played in connection with city functions such as the summer band and dance programs, Christmas Cheer program, and more recently music for a dance at the Recreation Center, 87 Broadway.

Excelsior Hose Plans Big Night In Getting Truck

Residents of the Higginsville section of Kingston are preparing for a "big night" next Monday evening when Excelsior Hose Company, No. 4, will be presented with their new fire truck. A program of ceremonies to mark the occasion is being arranged, including a big parade followed by an open house to which all friends of the company are invited.

At 7 o'clock Monday evening, February 21, members of Excelsior Hose Company and members of the Auxiliary will meet at the engine house where the parade will form. All friends of the company are invited to take part in this parade and are requested to be at the Hurley avenue engine house with their cars at that hour. Members of the Hurley Volunteer Fire Company, with their apparatus, as well as members of Ulster Hose Company, No. 5, town of Ulster, with their apparatus will participate in the parade and will be guests of Excelsiors after the parade.

Headed by a police escort, the parade will proceed to the Central Fire station where the old truck will be turned over to the city and the new fire truck will be delivered to Excelsiors and the return trip will be made to the fire house. In the parade will be Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk, Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy and Fire Commissioners Richard Riseley, Henry F. Kelsch and Frank E. Burr.

On the return the new truck will be officially presented to Excelsiors by the mayor, fire chief and fire commissioners and after receiving the truck the open house will continue during the evening. An invitation to all friends of Excelsior Hose Company is extended to attend the festivities.

Members of the Port Ewen Fire and Dragon Corps, led by John Bach, will head the parade to Central station and back to the engine house.

On Thursday evening of this week at 8 o'clock there will be a meeting of Excelsior members to make final plans for the receiving of the new truck and also to discuss final arrangements for the annual dinner which will be held at Roseland on February 22.

To Hold Poultry School
All poultrymen in the county are invited to attend a poultry school to be held Wednesday, February 16, at the Farm Bureau Office, 74 John street, sessions to start at 10 a. m. One of the main topics for discussion will be a new method for controlling infectious bronchitis, which will be explained by Dr. C. E. Angstrom of the Kingston Poultry Disease Laboratory.

U. S. Asks Russia Allow Study of Slavery Charges

Lake Success, Feb. 15 (AP)—The United States has challenged Russia to allow an impartial study of American charges that the Russians have 8,000,000 to 14,000,000 slave laborers.

The charge was made in the U.N. Economic and Social Council last night by Willard L. Thorp, assistant secretary of state. Thorp backed demands of the American Federation of Labor for a U.N. investigation of slave labor.

Thorp challenged Russia to let people from the International Labor Organization travel freely behind the iron curtain to study labor conditions. "If the representative of the U.S.S.R. and other countries deny that forced labor exists in their countries, let them open the way for an impartial study."

He added that the secrecy imposed by the Soviet government "seems to be one of the most indications that there is much to hide."

Thorp was the first speaker on the A.F.L. proposal, which has been before the council almost a year.

Murtagh Plans To Widen Probe

New York, Feb. 15 (AP)—City Investigation Commissioner John M. Murtagh plans to widen his milk price probe to take in all dairy products.

Whether he will be able to do so, he said last night, depends on an impending court decision which he predicted will declare he has a right to subpoena the books and records of milk companies.

Murtagh said other dairy products as well as milk are priced too high here.

"Once the Court of Appeals gives me the green light, I won't spare any dairy products," Murtagh told a Democratic Club forum. The court has pending a petition by the Dairywomen's League Cooperative Association to kill a subpoena by Murtagh for its books.

Murtagh said the "Big Three" milk distributors—the League, Borden and Sheffield—have a monopoly of milk distribution which extends to other dairy products.

One reason for the alleged monopoly, he said, can be traced to the state commissioner of agriculture and markets. He did not mention Commissioner C. Chester DuMont by name.

Murtagh declared part of the purported monopoly is made possible by a section of the state agriculture and markets law, which he said gives the commissioner power to disapprove applications for new dairy facilities.

He said the commissioner has repeatedly rejected such applications after big milk companies told him additional facilities would cause an "excess" of milk.

The milk companies and DuMont had no immediate comment on Murtagh's statement.
